User Story Development

---

- User Stories now use a new format
  - User Description (Who?)
  - Story (What?)
  - Benefit (Why?)

- New User Story drafts have been submitted
  - Technical Writer (Kirstin Gantenbein)
  - Hardware Verification Engineer (Jason Oberg)

User Story Website Presentation

---

- Similar to the FAQ page format
- Questions
  - Should the User Personas be folded into the User Description?
  - Is there a particular order that should be used (e.g., order of importance)?
  - Other thoughts?

CWE User Pain Points

- Pain point topics that the group is aware of or would like to discuss
- For those on the call, what were your biggest questions or concerns when beginning to use CWE?
- Are there common questions that CWE users have that are not covered in the current FAQ?
- Other potential opportunities:
  - Features we could expand or improve to make CWE consumption easier?
  - Maybe engage the community in one or more ways to solicit this kind of feedback (see topic #3)
- Other thoughts?

Community Engagement Strategy

---

- Develop a strategy for engaging the CWE user community for feedback
- What are the best methods to query the community on topics such as the pain points covered in topic #2
- What communication methods should be employed?
  - E.g., polls, emails, web, social media
- Should we target specific user types?

- Other thoughts?
